This is the story of how Raj (Shah Rukh Khan), a young man from North India, and Simran (Kajol), a young woman from the South, meet on their way to Europe. Their love for each other is tested by family opposition and distance. The movie was about two good people who wanted to get married but due to their different culture they couldn't marry. So, they ran away and got married. The film ended with the marriage of Shah Rukh Khan and Kajol at Rashtrapati Bhavan in New Delhi on 12 December 2010. After a gap of six years since "Dilwale Dulhania Le Jayenge", Shah Rukh Khan and Kajol re-united for "Dilwale Dulhania Le Jayenge 2". Once again, the movie featured the songs of A. R. Rahman, composed by himself and written by Raftaar for which Chitra got nominated as a producer. The movie also stars Kunal Kapoor as Raj's brother Maneek Singh. The film was released on 3 December 2015 with an all-India simultaneous release across over 7,000 screens in close to 1700 cinemas in India. This remake released on Eid ul-Fitr, which is one of the most watched occasions in India.

The music of the film is composed by A. R. Rahman, penned by Raftaar and lyrics are penned by Kausar Munir. The soundtrack features seven tracks. Lyrics have been penned by Kausar Munir, Swanand Kirkire, Ramnath Vasu, Manoj Yadav and Vishal-Shekhar while credit for "Sirf Tu" goes to Neeraj Shridhar Godeche Suresh Menon & Vatsal Shah for "Bina". The soundtrack received mostly positive reviews from critics with most reviewers praising A. R. Rahman's composition. The film's music was also widely appreciated and praised by critics for its soulful and romantic sound. The film's soundtrack album has a total of seven songs. Lyrics have been penned by Kausar Munir, Swanand Kirkire, Ramnath Vasu, Manoj Yadav and Vishal-Shekhar while credit for "Sirf Tu" goes to Neeraj Shridhar Godeche Suresh Menon & Vatsal Shah for "Bina". After the success of Dilwale Dulhania Le Jayenge, A. R. Rahman composed Dilwale Dulhania Le Jayenge 2 as a sequel to the 1997 blockbuster film.
